Correction notice

The authors of ‘Transcriptome analysis of pigeon milk production – role of cornification and triglyceride synthesis genes’ [1] have advised the journal that Dragana Stanley was inadvertently omitted from the list of authors. The Competing interests, Authors’ contributions and Acknowledgements sections have been modified accordingly.

Competing interests

The authors declare that they have no competing interests.

Authors’ contributions

Conceived the project: MG, TC, VH and RM. Contributed to the formulation of ideas: JD, KN and PM. Carried out experimental work: MG, VH, JP, JH, DG and PM. Responsible for animal husbandry: SW. Analysed data: MG, DS and VH. Wrote the manuscript: MG. All authors read and approved the final manuscript.

Acknowledgements

The authors would like to thank Leona McLaren from Kooyong Squab for supplying the pigeon breeding pairs and Nicholas Kieselbach and Adam Stein for pigeon husbandry. The authors acknowledge the support of the Australian Microscopy and Microanalysis Facility provided to the AAHL Biosecurity Microscopy Facility. In addition we wish to thank Alex Hyatt, Sandra Cramer, Honglei Chen and Ricardo Portela for their assistance.
