In the original article [1], the last line of paragraph 2, page 7 is missing the word “not”, which changes the meaning of the sentence.

This line should read:

Perhaps as a result of this disenfranchisement, 136 (76.0%) of surveyed workers reported they did not feel they had the same rights as Canadians while working in Canada. We would like to apologize for any inconvenience caused to the readers by these changes.
