Dear colleagues,

I am Weiqiang Li, the corresponding author of the manuscript CDDIS-22-0402RR, which is entitled with “Migration deficits of the neural crest caused by CXADR triplication in a human Down syndrome stem cell model”.

In this manuscript, Weijia Wang, Jiaqi Sun, and Yong Yuan were added as co-authors in the manuscript, since Weijia Wang (listed as a co-first author) and Yong Yuan (listed as a co-corresponding author) performed the experiments, analyzed the experimental data and drafted the manuscripts, while Jiaqi Sun (listed as a co-author) provided technical and material support during the manuscript was revised. Their contributions were clearly stated in the section of “Contributions” in the manuscript. The attached file was the latest version of the manuscript.

I wonder whether you agree with the changes in the author list. Thanks a lot.

Best,

Weiqiang Li

Dear colleagues,

I am Weiqiang Li, the corresponding author of the manuscript CDDIS-22-0402RR, which is entitled with “Migration deficits of the neural crest caused by CXADR triplication in a human Down syndrome stem cell model”.

In this manuscript, Weijia Wang, Jiaqi Sun, and Yong Yuan were added as co-authors in the manuscript, since Weijia Wang (listed as a co-first author) and Yong Yuan (listed as a co-corresponding author) performed the experiments, analyzed the experimental data and drafted the manuscripts, while Jiaqi Sun (listed as a co-author) provided technical and material support during the manuscript was revised. Their contributions were clearly stated in the section of “Contributions” in the manuscript. The attached file was the latest version of the manuscript.

I wonder whether you agree with the changes in the author list. Thanks a lot.

Best,

Weiqiang Li
