

(A) unhatched egg in treatment groups, egg undeveloped and dead embryo inside the egg, and (B) development of hatched egg in control groups, showing open operculum and embryo developed into larval stage.