

Supplementary Figure 1. Generalized linear model result of the correlation between mutation counts and gene expression levels at different time points post infection. False discovery rate corrected p-values are reported. At the 0.5h time point, three overlapping points with very few reads represent outliers. Their removal from the analysis still yielded a significant result.

