An incorrect version of the files within SupMat2_estimations.tar.gz were erroneously uploaded with the manuscript submission. The parameters associated with these simulation files therefore did not match those presented in the final results and the published paper. This error did not impact our results or values reported in the manuscript.

The correct Supplementary Files are available at Genome Biology and Evolution online.

These details have been corrected only in this corrigendum to preserve the published version of record.
