ERRATUM

Looking to the Future—Challenges and Opportunities: Erratum

On the first page of this article (pg. 425), a sentence was incorrectly worded as “We have noticed that even though we have decreased the number of peer reviewers from 3 to 3 in the last year the review time has not decreased.” This sentence should instead state “from 3 to 2”.

The online version of this article has been amended to correct the error.
