

Supplemental Figure 1. Module eigengene relationships with participant characteristics.

A. Spearman correlation coefficients are shown for significant associations ($p < 0.05$). Color gradient indicates positive (blue) to negative (red) associations. B. Significant differences in module eigengene values across categorical variables are indicated by an asterisk (*).